
Workshop on Starting a Business and Protecting Minority Investors [1]

Posted on 22 January 2019

The workshop on Starting a Business and Protecting Minority Investors in relating to the World Bank Doing Business Report was held at the head office of the Directorate of Investment and Company Administration on 21st January, 2019. Director General, U Aung Naing Oo, the head of the supporting groups on improving the indicators: Starting a Business and Protecting Minority Investors and members, the representatives from the World Bank attended this workshop. At the workshop, Mr. Frederic Meunier, Private Sector

Specialist from the World Bank made a presentation on Starting a Business Indicator and Protecting Minority Investors Indicator and the participants expressed their views and made comments on his presentation.

□

© Copyright DICA 2021. All rights reserved.

Made by □ Inspirational Creative
