
The second day of Invest Myanmar Summit 2019 held in Nay Pyi Taw [1]

Posted on 29 January 2019

The second day of Invest Myanmar Summit 2019 was held on 29th January, 2019 at the Myanmar International Convention Center 2 in Nay Pyi Taw.

The dialogue session of H.E U Thaung Tun, Minister for Ministry of Investment and Foreign Economic Relations on how the new Ministry is likely to effect changes in economic development in the country was opened the second day of the event.

□

After that, the presentation titled “The reforms, outcome and the update of investment environment for Myanmar” by U Aung Naing Oo, Director General of Directorate of Investment and Company Administration (DICA), “National Project Bank Explained” by U Set Aung, Deputy Minister of Ministry of Planning and Finance, “Myanmar 2.0 – Private Sector, the Engine of Economic Growth and Job Creation” by U Min Ye Paing Hein, Member of the National Economic Coordination Committee (NECC) and “Private Sector Perspective- Attracting Foreign Investment to Myanmar” by the representatives from the private sector are conversed in the summit respectively.

□

□

© Copyright DICA 2021. All rights reserved.

Made by □ Inspiral Creative
