Provided that the Appellate Committee may admit the appeal after the expiry of the said period if it is satisfied that there is sufficient cause for not presenting it within the said period.

(c) An assessee desiring to appeal has the right to present the appeal under this section only after he has complied with the following:-

(i) income-tax payable has been fully paid; or
(ii) application is made to the Committee delegated by the Government for this purpose and has complied with the decision of that Committee in respect of that tax;

(d) In disposing of the appeal, the Appellate Committee shall give the appellant an opportunity of being heard and may pass any order thereon as it thinks fit.

Provided that if an enhancement of income-tax is intended, the appellant shall be allowed an opportunity to show cause why it shall not be enhanced.

Explanation-The First Appellate Committee mentioned in this section and succeeding sections means the Committee delegated by the Government under section 7 to decide the first appeals of the assessees who are dissatisfied.
with the order passed by the Assessment Committee.

33. (a) If the appellant assessee of the Assessment Committee is not satisfied with the order of the First Appellate Committee, appeal may be preferred to the Second Appellate Committee within sixty days of the receipt of that order.

(b) The second Appellate committee may admit an appeal under this section after the expiry of sixty days referred to in sub-section (a) if it is satisfied that there was sufficient cause for not presenting it within that period.

(c) In an appeal under this section, the memorandum of appeal to the Second Appellate Committee shall be presented in accordance with the procedure laid down by that Committee. When the appeal is preferred by an assessee, documentary proof for payment of kyats one hundred as a fee must be attached.

(d) The Second Appellate Committee, after giving the appellant and the respondent an opportunity of being heard, shall pass such orders thereon as it thinks fit regarding the appeal.

(e) Except as provided in section 34, the orders of the Second Appellate Committee passed in appeal shall be final.

Explanation- The Second Appellate Committee appearing in this section and in succeeding sections means the Committee delegated by the Government under section 7 to dispose of second appeals preferred either by the assessee or the Assessment Committee who is dissatisfied with the order of the First Appellate Committee.

33A. The order of the Assessment Committee shall be final if the tax is up to kyats 500; the decision of the First Appellate Committee shall be final if the tax is up to kyat 10000; and the decision of the Second Appellate Committee shall be final if the tax exceeds kyats 10000 and if no question of law arises.

34. (a) If there is any question of law arising out of the order of the Second Appellate Committee, the assessee or the First Appellate Committee may within sixty days after the receipt of the order of the Second Appellate Committee, propose to the Second Appellate Committee to refer the case to the Supreme Court.

(b) If the Second Appellate Committee for a certain reason refuses to draw up a statement of the case and refer it to the Supreme Court, the person whose proposal is rejected may apply to the Supreme Court within sixty days of the receipt of rejection order to direct the Second Appellate Committee to draw up a statement of the case and refer to it.

(c) If the Supreme Court accepts that there is question of law arising out of the case which requires decision, then the Supreme Court shall decide that question and its judgement shall be communicated to the Second Appellate Committee.

(d) An appeal shall lie to the Supreme Court from an order passed by it under sub-section (c).

35. (a) The Revisional Committee may, within Three years from the date of the order passed by the Assessment Committee under this Law, call for the records of proceedings on its own motion or on the application of the assessee, to revise that order. The Revisional Committee may make necessary enquiry or may cause such enquiry to be made when the records of proceedings are received. An appropriate order may be passed at any time thereafter.

Provided that in passing the following orders, the assessee shall be given an opportunity of being heard:-
(i) the order enhancing the amount of income-tax payable by the assessee;
(ii) the order reducing the amount of refund to be paid to the assessee;
(iii) the order setting aside the assessment made on the assessee.

(b) The Revisional Committee shall not revise any order under this section if:
(i) an appeal lies to the First Appellate Committee and the time allowed for presenting the appeal has not expired; or
(ii) the order is one where an appeal has been preferred to the First Appellate Committee.

(c) Application for revision by an assessee can only be made when he has complied with the provisions under sub-section (c) of section 32.

Explanation-The Revisional Committee mentioned in this section means a Committee delegated by the Government under section 7 to exercise revisional powers regarding the order passed by the Assessment Committee, in the following cases:
(a) where the assessee being dissatisfied with the order of the Assessment Committee has applied for revision;
(b) where the Revisional Committee is of the opinion that action taken by the Assessment Committee is incorrect.

36. Copies of order passed under section 32, 33 and 35 shall be sent to the relevant assessee, the Assessment Committee and the First Appellate Committee, as the case may be.

CHAPTER XI
Refund

37. (a) If any person satisfies the Assessment
Committee with supporting evidence that the amount of tax paid by him or on his behalf for any year exceeds the amount which he is properly chargeable under this Law, he shall be entitled to a refund of such excess. If any excess payment of tax has been found by the Assessment Committee such excess shall also be refunded to the relevant assessee.

(b) The claim for refund is to be made only within one year from the date of receipt of the letter of intimation that such refund is due.

CHAPTER XII
Matters relating to Persons Leaving the Union of Myanmar

38. (a) No person shall leave the Union of Myanmar unless he obtains a certificate from the authority delegated for this specific purpose stating that he has no liability to pay tax or that Satisfactory arrangement has been made for the payment of the tax.

Provided that exception to the above requirement may be by the Government by notification.

(b) The owner or charterer of any vehicle who issues a ticket to carry any person from the Union of Myanmar to any place outside the Union of has carried him by such vehicle without the certificate required by sub-section (a) shall be liable to pay the amount of tax payable by that person, and shall also be liable to a fine which may extend to ten thousand kyats.

CHAPTER XIII
Recovery of Tax

39. (a) Any amount of tax specified in the notice of demand under section 53 shall be paid within the time mentioned in that notice or within the time extendee for such payment. In case of failure so to pay, the unpaid tax shall be deemed to be an arrear and the person

Requirement of certificate

Arrears to be recovered as money decree failing to pay such tax shall be deemed to be a defaulter.

(b) The arrears of tax may be recovered by the Assessment Committee as if it were a money decree passed by a Civil Court.

(c) For the purpose of recovering the arrears of tax under sub-section (b), the Assessment Committee shall have the following powers:

(i) the powers of a Civil in finalizing execution of a money decree;

(ii) the appointment of a receiver for the whole of the property in which the defaulter has partial interest (the co-owner or co-sharer shall be intimated before such appointment);

(iii) the right to sell the whole of the property and to distribute the sale proceeds, if the part of the property in which the defaulter has partial interest cannot be sold for any of the following reasons (before doing so, those having beneficial interest shall be intimated):-

(aa) the nature of the property;

(bb) the number of co-owners or co-sharers;

(cc) other special circumstances;

(iv) the right to sell the property to the co-owner or co-sharer where the sale is of indivisible immovable property and the said co-owner or co-sharer is one of the bidders who gives equal bid, and the right to sell the property to the person who first submitted his name if the number of co-owners or co-sharers who give equal bid is more than one.

40. (a) The Assessment Committee may impose penalty as required on the defaulter for the arrears of tax.

Provided that the total amount of the penalty so imposed shall not exceed the arrears of tax.

(b) The Assessment Committee may direct a person from whom money is due or may become due to the defaulter, or who holds or may subsequently hold money for or on account of the defaulter, to pay that money for the arrears of tax on behlaf of the defaulter. In so doing, it shall be directed that the tax shall be paid as soon as the money becomes payable, or when the money comes into possession, or within the time mentioned in the notice. If that money exceeds the arrears of tax, only the amount equal to the arrears of tax shall be paid and if it is equal to or less than the amount of arrears, the whole of the money shall be paid. A copy of the aforesaid intimation shall be sent to the last known address of the defaulter. The Assessment Committee may extend the time of payment mentioned in the notice.

(c) Any person making payment in compliance with a notice under this section shall be deemed to have made the payment under the authority of the defaulter, and the receipt of the Assessment Committee shall constitute a good and sufficient discharge of the liability of such person to the defaulter to the extent of the amount referred to in the receipt.

(d) If the person on whom a notice under sub-section (b) is served fails to make payment in pursuance thereof, further proceedings may be taken on the footing that the Assessment Committee’s notice has the same effect as a warrant of attachment of property under sub-section (b) and (c) of section 39.

(e) Where the person on whom a notice has been served under sub-section (b) is able to show with supporting evidence to the Assessment Committee that the sum demanded or any part thereof is not due to the defaulter or that he does not hold any money for or on account of the defaulter, then he shall not be liable to pay under sub-section (b).

41. Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, no authority or court shall be competent to make an interlocutory order staying recovery proceedings under this Law. Provided that the aforesaid authority or court may pass an interlocutory order on the sale of property within its jurisdiction in the following cases:-
(a) proceedings instituted by a person other than the defaulter, regarding the said property;
(b) in the case of proceedings instituted by an assessee, where an appeal or a revision or a reference preferred by the defaulter under this law is pending.

CHAPTER XIV
Supplemental Powers

42. Any committee delegated by the Government under section 7, may require any person who has any information relating to income-tax, to furnish such information.

43. Any committees delegated by the Government under section 7 shall have the same powers as are vested in a Civil Court in the course of proceedings under this Law. These committees shall be deemed to be functional courts.

44. The committees delegated by the Government under section 7, shall have the powers to carry out the following matters:-
(a) the right to enter and inspect any place or building for purposes of assessment or disposal of any appeal;
(b) the right to place marks of identification on the books of account or documents or to make extracts or copies therefrom in the course of entry into the premises and inspection thereof.

45. If the Assessment Committee or the First Appellate Committee has reason to suspect that any books of accounts or documents had been withheld from production or may not forthcoming when required in the course of proceedings under this Law, that Committee has the following powers:-
(a) the right to search any building, place, or business premises;
(b) the right to seize any books of account or documents found in that place. In case of such seizure:-
(i) a receipt shall be granted;
(ii) they shall be retained in its custody only for so long as may be necessary for examination pending the final disposal of the assessment or appeal as the case may be.

CHAPTER XV
Offences and Penalties

46 (a) If the Assessment Committee or the Appellate Committee in the course of any proceeding under this Law believes and is satisfied that any person fails without reasonable cause, to comply with the requirements under sub-section (a) or (b) of section 17 or under section 18 or under sub-section (b) of section 19, a penalty not exceeding ten percent of the tax shall, in addition to the tax payable, be imposed for each default.

Explanation. The person who is liable to pay penalty for failure to comply with the requirement under section 18, is the one who is responsible to furnish the annual statement of salaries.
The penalty payable by him shall be ten per cent of the tax required to be deducted from the salaries in accordance with that statement.

(b) If any person fails to furnish information
Under section 42, an extension of time upto fifteen days may be granted to him.

(i) If the assessee continues to fail to furnish the information within the extended time, the authority formed under section 7 may, by exercising its judicial powers conferred by section 43, issue a warrant causing him to be brought and may investigate why he fails to furnish the information. If the cause of failure to furnish is due to the loss of documents and the loss is not owing to his fault, he may then be allowed to divulge whatever he remembers by an affidavit.

(ii) If the authority has found that there is no sufficient excuse for his failure to furnish the information, he may be prosecuted. If the court finds his guilty, he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend from one to three years.

47. (a) If the Assessmen Committee or the Appellate Committee in the course of proceedings finds that any person has concealed his income or concealed the particulars relating to his income, he shall be permitted to disclose those facts fully within the specified time.

(b) If such person discloses fully in the specified time, he shall pay, in addition to the tax payable on his total income, a penalty equal to fifty per cent of the amount of tax increased on account of the concealment.

(c) If such person fails to disclose the particulars within the specified time or discloses less than the income concealed, he shall, in addition to paying the tax and penalty in accordance with sub-section (b), also be liable to prosecution. If the Court finds him guilty, he may be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend from three to ten years.

Provided that no prosecution shall be instituted under this section without the prior sanction of the authority delegated by the Government for this purpose. The said authority shall, by taking into consideration the magnitude of that person’s fraudulent intention to evade the tax leviable under this Law and the feasibility of such disclosure, decide whether to grant sanction or not. The time within which disclosure is allowed to be made may be extended if necessary.

48. Whoever gives and takes bribe or attempts to do so in connection with this Law, shall be liable to be punished under the Penal Law or under any other law specifically enacted for this office.

49. (a) All the particulars appearing in the proceedings dealt with under this Law shall be deemed to be of confidential nature. Nowithstanding anything contained in the Evidence Act, no Court shall be competent to summon any public servant to produce such particulars or to give evidence in respect thereof.

(b) No public servant shall disclose such particulars except in the case of a matter relating to the Government.

(c) Any public servant who contravenes the provisions of sub-section (b) shall be prosecuted and if he is found guilty he may be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to 6 months.

Explaination Public servant means any person whom the Government has designated as public servants from time to time.

50. Prosecution for the purpose of section 49, shall only be instituted with the prior sanction of the authority delegated by the Government.

CHAPTER XVI
